

Bake sale for CHEO on SATURDAY at Lincoln Fields Shopping Centre

OTTAWA, April 10, 2004 – Students from the Istanbul School of Language (ISL) will be fundraising for the Children's Hospital of Eastern Ontario (CHEO) on Saturday, April 17, 2004 at Lincoln Fields Shopping Centre for the whole day. The stalls will be located on the lower floor next to Wal-Mart.

Inline with ISL's values, the motto is "Languages for Peace". Come out and show your support, pickup your FREE "Languages for Peace" bookmark and purchase homemade Turkish delicacies.

Dove-shaped "Languages for Peace" pins will also be on sale at the stand.

Event: Bake sale for CHEO

Date: Saturday, April 17, 2004

Time: 10:00 a.m. – 6:00 p.m.

Place: Lincoln Fields Shopping Centre, 2525 Carling Ave., Ottawa

About the Istanbul School of Language

The Istanbul School of Language (ISL) is a Turkish Language education centre for all ages. ISL is mandated by the Ontario Provincial Government under the International Languages Program and is functioning as a member of Conseil des écoles catholiques de langue française du Centre-Est (CECLF) in Greater Ottawa. Established with CECLF in January 2003, our school has students from all corners of Ottawa. Currently, courses are offered to 4 - 14 year olds every Saturday morning during the school year at Collège Catholique Franco-Ouest, 411 Seyton Drive, Nepean. High School level Turkish Language credit courses will also soon be available. Prior to our current location our school operated from Pinecrest-Queensway Health and Community Services, 1365 Richmond Road, Ottawa for a short period of time.
